

RESOLUTION

SUBMITTED BY

MASSACHUSETTS STATE BOARD

WHEREAS: October is the month in which one Sunday is designated as "Catholic Daughter Sunday", and

WHEREAS: membership totals have been moving slowly downward over the past years with the death of many of our beloved long time members and the closing of several courts, and

WHEREAS: Catholic Daughters of the Americas is the largest organization of Catholic women who continually do God's work in the vineyard under the theme of "Unity and Charity", and

BE IT RESOLVED That each court in Massachusetts celebrate "Catholic Daughter Sunday" by attending Mass in a group at a designated Sunday mass and provide an article for the parish bulletin so that the parish community will know of your presence in the parish community, and

AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED That this best kept secret will become known that the Catholic Daughters of the Americas are alive in your town and the State of Massachusetts.
